Do you dare answer the call...The call of COWTHULHU! If so, put down your copy of Weird Tales and pick up this Imperial Gose fit for The Great Old Ones. We started this fitting tribute with a heavy dose of Blueberry and Blackberry and then invoked the eldritch horror with additions of Elderberry, coriander, and sea salt. This creates an other-worldly flavor that can not be imprisoned. Surely something that H.P. Hoofcraft would be proud of.
